INTERPUBLIC GROUP REPORTS RESULTS FOR SECOND QUARTER 1998

New York, July 27, 1998 (NYSE:IPG) -- Philip H. Geier, Jr., Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, reported that The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. had net income for the second quarter of 1998 of $116.4 million, an increase of 24.8% over the restated net income for the second quarter of 1997 of $93.2 million. The basic earnings per share increased 20.5% to $.88 from $.73 for the comparable restated period of 1997. On a diluted basis, earnings per share for the second quarter of 1998 was $.84, an increase of 20% over the restated second guarter of Gross income for the second quarter of 1998 was $972.4 million, an increase of 17.8% over 1997. Gross income for the United operations increased 21.4%. Gross income international operations increased 14.5%. Gross income from international operations would have increased 23.4%, except for strengthening of the U.S. dollar against major currencies.

Net income for the first six months of 1998 was $152.2 million, an increase of 24.1% over the restated net income for 1997. The basic earnings per share increased 18.6% to $1.15 from $.97 the comparable restated period of 1997. On a diluted basis, earnings per share was $1.11 versus $.93 in 1997, an increase of 19.4%.

Gross income for the first six months of 1998 was $1,748 million, an increase of 16.2% from the restated six months of 1997. Gross income from United States operations increased 20.4%. Gross income from international operations increased 12.1%. Gross income from international operations would have increased 21.4%, except for the strengthening of the U.S. dollar against major currencies.

more fully disclosed in the Company's supplemental consolidated financial statements, Interpublic acquired three companies in April 1998, which were accounted for as poolings of interests. All prior period figures have been restated to incorporate the aggregate effect of the April 1998 pooled companies in addition to all prior pooled entities.

Interpublic's agency systems gained record net new business during the second guarter of 1998 of approximately $294 million compared with the second quarter of 1997 net new business gain of $236 million, an increase of 24%. During the first six months of 1998 net new business gains were recorded of approximately $817 million compared with $709 million during the first six months of 1997, an increase of 15%.

Continuing cost containment efforts kept costs at appropriate levels. Mr. Geier noted that the Company's financial condition continues to be excellent, with a strong balance sheet and a solid cash position. He also noted, as in previous years, the results for the first six months do not necessarily indicate results for the full year.

The Interpublic Group of Companies is comprised of McCann-Erickson WorldGroup, Ammirati Puris Lintas, The Lowe Group, DraftWorldwide, Western International Media, Communications Group, Octagon and other related companies.

The shares of The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. are listed on the New York Stock Exchange (IPG); more information about is available on the company's Interpublic Web www.interpublic.com.
