NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

NATURE OF OPERATIONS--True North has three major global brands: FCB Worldwide L.L.C., (advertising), BSMG Worldwide, Inc. (public relations), and Marketing Drive Worldwide, Inc. (marketing services). In addition, True North has other brands including Bozell Group L.L.C. (advertising), Temerlin McClain LP (advertising), R/GA Media Group, Inc. (interactive design and development), Tierney & Partners, Inc. (advertising and public relations), TN Media, Inc. (media placement), and New America Strategies Group L.L.C. (multicultural marketing). True North also holds an approximately 44% interest in Modem Media, Inc., an internet services company, and a 35.5% stake in Springer & Jacoby, a German-based advertising agency.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION--The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of True North and its wholly owned and majority-owned subsidiaries. All significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated. True North uses the equity method of accounting to record its investments in 20 percent to 49 percent owned affiliated companies.

USE OF ESTIMATES--The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, as well as the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

REVENUE RECOGNITION--Revenues are generally derived from commissions and fees for the production of advertising, placement of such advertisements in various media and the performance of services. Commission revenues are generated primarily from media and production expenditures and are recognized when the media placements appear and services related to production costs have been performed. Fee arrangements for advertising services, public relations, sales promotion and other services are recognized when the services are provided in accordance with the terms of the specific contractual arrangements.

CASH EQUIVALENTS AND INVESTMENTS--Cash equivalents are highly liquid investments, including certificates of deposit, government securities and time deposits, with maturities of three months or less at the time of purchase and are stated at estimated fair value or cost. Short-term investments are similar investments with maturities of more than three months but less than one year from the date of purchase.

True North has classified all its marketable equity securities as available for sale and they are carried at fair value with unrealized gains and losses reported as a separate component of comprehensive income.

FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSLATION--The financial statements of True North's foreign operations, where the local currency is the functional currency, are translated into U.S. dollars at the exchange rates in effect at each year-end for assets and liabilities and at the average exchange rates during the year for the results of operations. The related unrealized gains or losses resulting from translation are reported as a separate component of comprehensive income.

PROPERTY AND DEPRECIATION--The cost of property and equipment is depreciated generally using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets, which range from 3 to 10 years for furniture and equipment. Leasehold improvements are capitalized and amortized over the shorter of the life of the asset or the lease term.

INTANGIBLE ASSETS--Intangible assets resulting from acquisitions, principally goodwill, are amortized using the straight-line method over periods not exceeding 20 years. Amortization of intangible assets included in operating expenses amounted to $31.8 million, $29.1 million and $22.9 million for the years ended December 31, 2000, 1999, and 1998, respectively.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS--Long-lived assets, consisting primarily of property and equipment and intangible assets arising from business purchase combinations, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or circumstances indicate their carrying value may not be recoverable. When such events or circumstances arise, an estimate of the future undiscounted cash flows produced by the asset, or the appropriate grouping of assets, is compared to the asset's carrying value to determine if an impairment exists pursuant to the requirements of SFAS No. 121, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed Of." If the asset(s) is determined to be impaired, the impairment loss is measured based on the excess of its carrying value over its fair value. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of its carrying value or net realizable value.

INCOME TAXES--Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the estimated future tax consequences of temporary differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the year in which the temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

Income taxes are generally not provided on undistributed earnings of foreign subsidiaries because these earnings are considered to be permanently invested or will not be repatriated unless any additional federal income taxes would be substantially offset by foreign tax credits.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS--The carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, accounts receivable, accounts payable, short-term bank borrowings, and accrued expenses approximate fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments. True North estimates that as of December 31, 2000, the fair value of its long-term debt is not materially different from its financial statement carrying value. The fair value of long-term debt was estimated using quoted market prices or discounted future cash flows.

EARNINGS PER SHARE--Basic earnings per share are computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted earnings per share are also computed using the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year but also include the dilutive effect of outstanding option grants under True North's stock option plans.

DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS--In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities." SFAS No. 133 establishes accounting and reporting standards requiring that every derivative instrument, including certain derivative instruments embedded in other contracts, be recorded in the balance sheet as either an asset or a liability measured at its fair value. SFAS No. 133 requires that changes in the derivative's fair value be recognized currently in earnings unless specific hedge accounting criteria are met. SFAS No. 133 was to be effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 1999. In June 1999, the FASB issued SFAS No. 137, which delayed the effective date of SFAS No. 133 by one year. In June 2000, the FASB issued SFAS No. 138, which amends the accounting and reporting standards of SFAS No. 133 for certain derivative instruments and hedging activities. Management currently believes that the implementation of SFAS No. 138 and 133, effective January 1, 2001, will not have a material impact on True North's results of operations or financial condition.

True North infrequently enters into foreign exchange forward contracts to manage market risk associated with foreign exchange volatility relating primarily to certain intercompany transactions. The notional value and fair value of all outstanding contracts at the end of each year and the estimated cost to settle these contracts during each year were not significant.

PRESENTATION--Certain prior-period amounts have been reclassified to conform with the current year presentation.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2. RESTATEMENT OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Prior to 2000, True North had generally used a 40-year life for the amortization of all intangible assets arising from purchase business combinations. This was consistent with True North's view that intangible assets relating to True North's acquisitions had useful lives of at least 40 years.

Based on discussions with the Securities and Exchange Commission, True North concluded that it would adopt amortization periods not exceeding 20 years for intangible assets arising from prior acquisitions and equity method investments and that the appropriate accounting for intangibles arising from acquisitions subsequent to December 31, 2000 would be determined on a case-by-case basis based upon appraised values and lives. Accordingly, True North's financial statements for all periods prior to December 31, 2000, have been restated from those previously issued to give retroactive effect to this accounting change. The restatement reduced net income by $12.1 million ($0.24 per diluted share) in 2000, reduced net income by $10.6 million ($0.22 per diluted share) in 1999 and increased net income by $7.0 million ($0.15 per diluted share) in 1998.

A summary of the effects of this change in accounting on the consolidated statements of income for the years ended December 31, 1999 and 1998 is as follows (in thousands, except per share amounts):

3. ACQUISITIONS

The cost of businesses acquired by True North in transactions accounted for as purchases aggregated $121.4 million in 2000, including 0.4 million shares of common stock, and $86.5 million in 1999, including 0.5 million shares of common stock. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of net identifiable assets acquired was approximately $110.1 million and $84.2 million, respectively, and is being amortized over periods not exceeding 20 years. Unaudited pro forma financial information, assuming the 2000 acquisitions had been completed on January 1, 1999, is as follows: revenues of approximately $1,628.7 million and net income of approximately $66.6 million in 2000 and revenues of approximately $1,541.6 million and net income of approximately $33.2 million in 1999.

In February 1999, True North issued approximately 1.2 million shares of its common stock for all the outstanding capital stock of FRB, a Chicago-based investor relations firm. This acquisition has been accounted for as a pooling of interests and, accordingly, the consolidated financial statements were restated for all periods prior to the acquisition. Included in the 1998 results of FRB are approximately $7.5 million of merger-related costs and other expense adjustments, consisting primarily of employee compensation-related expenses and pension costs.

4. RESTRUCTURING AND OTHER CHARGES

In September 2000, Chrysler, True North's largest account, announced that it was undertaking a review of its two advertising agencies to reduce the costs of its global advertising and media. Chrysler represented approximately $136 million, or approximately 9%, of True North's consolidated revenues. On November 3, 2000, True North was informed that it was not selected as the agency of record. In December 2000, True North terminated its existing contract with Chrysler and entered into a transition agreement effective January 1, 2001.

As a result of the loss of the Chrysler account, True North recorded a $17.5 million pre-tax charge ($10.0 million after-tax or $0.20 per diluted share) in the fourth quarter of 2000. The charge covers primarily severance, lease termination and other exit costs associated with the decision to close the Detroit office. The severance portion of the charge amounts to $5.8 million and reflects the elimination of approximately 250 positions. The charge also includes $11.4 million associated primarily with the lease termination of the Detroit office, as well as other exit costs. In addition, an impairment loss of $5.5 million was recorded for intangible assets that are no longer recoverable. Offsetting these charges was a $5.2 million payment from Chrysler to compensate True North for severance and other exit costs. At December 31, 2000, 5 people had been terminated and $0.3 million of severance and other exit costs had been paid.

In September 1999, management of True North committed to a formal plan to restructure its operations and recorded a $75.4 million pre-tax charge ($49.5 million after-tax, or $1.03 per diluted share) in the third quarter of 1999. The charge covered primarily severance, lease termination and other exit costs in connection with the combination and integration of True North's two independent worldwide advertising agency networks. Bozell Worldwide's international operations, along with Bozell Detroit and Bozell Costa Mesa, were merged with FCB Worldwide and now operate under the FCB Worldwide name. The restructuring initiatives also included the sale or closing of certain underperforming business units.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The restructuring program was completed during the third quarter of 2000. A summary of components of the restructuring charge is as follows (in millions):

	SEVERANCE AND TERMINATION BENEFITS	LEASE TERMINATION AND OTHER EXIT COSTS	IMPAIRMENT LOSS	TOTAL
	-----	-----	-----	-----
Restructuring reserve, September 30, 1999.....	$ 41.4	$24.2	$ 9.8	$ 75.4
1999 Write-downs.....	--	(0.9)	(9.8)	(10.7)

Balance, December 31, 1999.....	31.7	20.1	--	51.8
2000 Write-downs.....	--	(4.3)	--	(4.3)
2000 Cash payments.....	(22.5)	(9.5)	--	(32.0)
Long-term obligations secured.....	(9.6)	(5.3)	--	(14.9)
Excess reserve (net).....	0.4	(1.0)	--	(0.6)
	-----	-----	-----	-----

The involuntary severance and termination benefits portion of the charge amounted to $41.4 million and reflected the elimination of approximately 640 positions worldwide, primarily in international locations. The employee groups affected primarily included executive and regional management and administrative personnel. As of September 30, 2000, such positions were eliminated at a cost of $41.8 million, which was $0.4 million higher than the original estimate.

The charge of $24.2 million associated with lease terminations and other exit costs represented primarily the closure, abandonment and downsizing of office space globally, including approximately 30 international locations. The costs included $13.5 million of remaining lease obligations net of estimated sublease income, as well as $5.9 million of impairment charges pertaining to leasehold improvements and fixed assets that were no longer used in the combined operation. As of September 30, 2000, these facilities were abandoned or downsized at a cost of $23.2 million, which was $1.0 million lower than the original estimate.

Accordingly, the net excess restructuring reserve of $0.6 million was reversed into income on the restructuring and other charges line in the third quarter of 2000. The remaining severance liabilities of $9.6 million pertain to terminated individuals and will be paid over the next four years in accordance with contractually defined severance agreements. The remaining lease liabilities and other exit costs of $5.3 million pertain to non-cancelable lease commitments in excess of sublease income for exited facilities that will be paid out over the remaining lease periods, which range from one to five years.

The impairment loss on the sale or closing of certain business units amounts to $9.8 million and resulted from the decision to sell two business units, one in the U.S. and one in the United Kingdom, and to close four other business units and joint ventures, including the R/GA Digital Studios, which specialized in digital production for advertising and film companies. The impairment loss was computed based upon the difference between the estimated sales proceeds (if any) and the carrying value of the related assets and investments and primarily represents the impairment of goodwill associated with such units. These sales or closures were completed by September 30, 2000.

During the third quarter of 1998, True North reorganized its Poppe Tyson subsidiary prior to its merger with Modem Media into Modem Media. Poppe Tyson, Inc. The impact of the reorganization was a charge of $4.3 million. These costs included severance, the write-down of computer equipment that was not being used in the ongoing operations to net realizable value, and the costs to buy out minority shareholders.

5. SHORT-TERM BANK BORROWINGS AND LONG-TERM DEBT

Short-term bank borrowings consist principally of amounts borrowed under domestic and international bank overdraft facilities, lines of credit and multicurrency credit arrangements. Average aggregate short-term borrowings were $130.2 million in 2000 and $186.1 million in 1999, and the maximum amounts outstanding at month-end were $179.5 million in 2000 and $332.0 million in 1999. The weighted average interest rates for short-term borrowings were 6.5%, 5.5% and 6.1% in 2000, 1999 and 1998, respectively.

On May 29, 1998, True North established a revolving credit facility, totaling $250.0 million, with eight banks. This facility has two parts: a $175.0 million five-year revolving-credit agreement and a $75.0 million 364-day revolving-credit facility. True North may borrow under these agreements at a Eurodollar rate plus a spread, a base reference rate, or a competitive bid. In addition, True North is required to pay a facility fee ranging from 0.1% to 0.2%, depending upon True North's financial performance. While True North borrowed under the $175.0 million five-year revolving-credit agreement during 2000, there was no outstanding balance as of December 31, 2000.

On May 26, 2000, True North extended its 364-day credit agreement for up to $75.0 million of borrowings as part of its $250.0 million revolving credit facility. The terms of the extension include the payment of a commitment fee to the bank of 0.04%. As of December 31, 2000, there was no outstanding balance under the 364-day credit agreement.

As of December 31, 2000 and 1999, long-term debt consisted of (in millions):

	2000	1999
	-----	-----
Three-year term loan.....	$25.0	$25.0
Obligations under capitalized leases.....	0.5	2.3
Demand notes payable.....	2.8	5.0
Three-year Deutsche Mark term loan.....	8.6	10.4
Other notes and obligations.....	1.5	2.9
	-----	-----
	38.4	45.6
Less: Current portions.....	(11.7)	(9.0)
	-----	-----
Total long-term debt.....	$26.7	$36.6

Scheduled maturities of long-term debt are $11.7 million, $25.2 million and $1.5 million in 2001, 2002 and 2003, respectively.

In May 1999, True North obtained two three-year term loans totaling $25.0 million, which refinanced similar loans expiring on May 24, 1999. A $15.0 million loan carries a fixed interest rate of 6.52%, and a $10.0 million loan carries a fixed rate of 6.785%.

The terms of the obligations under capitalized leases provide for payment of principal and interest in annual installments, with the final purchase payments due on various dates through December 2004. The leases were for the acquisition of equipment.

The demand notes payable were issued during 1999 and 1998 to the former owners of foreign businesses that True North had acquired. These notes, which are payable on demand, have final maturity dates in 2009 and carry interest rates of 5.5% to 6%.

During 1998 True North entered into a three-year term loan with a bank totaling 21.5 million Deutsche Marks to finance an acquisition. The loan calls for six semi-annual payments through October 2001. The interest rate is fixed at 5.03%.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

In addition to these agreements, True North had available at various banks uncommitted lines of credit aggregating approximately $203.6 million as of December 31, 2000, of which $158.1 million was unused. These other lines of credit are subject to annual renewal and may be withdrawn at the option of the various banks. There are no commitment fees or compensating balance requirements under these arrangements. Interest rates are negotiated at the time of each borrowing.

The revolving credit facility and certain other debt agreements contain various restrictive covenants and conditions which include, but are not limited to, the following: True North must maintain a minimum net worth of $175.0 million, a debt leverage ratio of no greater than 3.5:1, and a fixed-charge coverage ratio of at least 1.5:1.

As of December 31, 2000, True North was in compliance with all covenants and conditions related to these agreements.

6. CONTINGENCIES

As previously disclosed, on December 2, 1997, Mazda Motor of America, Inc. (Mazda), a former client of True North's subsidiary, Foote, Cone & Belding Advertising, Inc. (FCB), initiated an arbitration against FCB before the American Arbitration Association in Los Angeles, California. Mazda sought indemnity and reimbursement for liabilities it incurred or expected to incur in connection with automobile lease advertising that aired in 1996 and 1997. Mazda's sought to recover from FCB approximately $9.0 million in damages, exclusive of interest, costs and attorneys' fees. FCB denied liability for these claims, and filed a counterclaim in the arbitration seeking approximately $5.5 million from Mazda in unpaid commissions for planning and placing advertising during the final months of FCB's relationship with Mazda. On March 14, 2001, Mazda and FCB entered into a settlement agreement resolving all claims and counterclaims asserted in the arbitration; the liability associated with the settlement agreement did not have a material impact on True North's consolidated results of operations or financial position.

True North is a party to several other lawsuits incidental to its business. It is not possible at the present time to estimate the ultimate liability, if any, of True North with respect to such litigation; however, management believes that any ultimate liability will not be material in relation to True North's consolidated results of operations or financial position.

7. INVESTMENT IN AFFILIATED COMPANIES

In September 2000, True North acquired a 35.5% interest in Springer & Jacoby, a German-based advertising group, for total consideration of $25.9 million. The consideration consisted of an initial cash payment of $16.9 million and a put option valued at $9.0 million. Pursuant to the purchase agreement, the two largest shareholders of Springer & Jacoby have the right to sell all of their shares (put option) to True North in January 2003 at a fixed price of 53.0 million Deutsche marks. The additional shares to be purchased in January 2003 pursuant to the put option represent 15.5% of the outstanding shares of Springer & Jacoby. True North has recorded the fair value of this put option as a $10.6 million liability at December 31, 2000. True North has entered into forward exchange contracts to purchase 53.0 million Deutsche Marks in January 2003 at a value of $23.2 million. The fair value of the forward exchange contract was recorded as an asset of $2.3 million at December 31, 2000. Changes in the fair value of the put option liability and the forward exchange contracts are reflected as components of pre-tax earnings.

Effective February 10, 1999, a majority-owned subsidiary of True North, Modem Media. Poppe Tyson, Inc. (now known as Modem Media, Inc.), completed an initial public offering (IPO) of its common stock. The number of shares issued was 3.0 million, at a price of $16 per share, with net proceeds totaling $42.0 million. As a result of the IPO, True North owned approximately 48% of Modem Media, down from its previous 70% ownership, but controlled approximately 80% of the related stockholder votes due to the super-majority voting rights on its Class B shares. Modem Media used the proceeds from the IPO for working capital, capital expenditures, and acquisitions. As a result of this transaction, True North recorded a $2.6 million gain, net of $2.0 million of deferred income taxes, as a credit to stockholders' equity.

In April 2000, True North converted all of its shares of Modem Media Class B common stock into Class A common stock pursuant to a Stockholders' Agreement with Modem Media. As a result, True North's voting power was reduced from approximately 80% to approximately 46%. Accordingly, effective with the second quarter of 2000, Modem Media is no longer consolidated in True North's financial statements and is accounted for on the equity method.

In February 2000, Modem Media acquired 100% of the outstanding capital stock of Vivid Holdings, Inc. and its majority-owned subsidiary, Vivid Publishing, Inc. (Vivid) for approximately $63.6 million. The consideration was comprised of approximately $10.2 million in cash, approximately $14.4 million in Modem Media common stock and approximately $39.0 million in value related to employee stock options that were converted to Modem Media stock options. The acquisition has been accounted for under the purchase method of accounting. The allocation of the excess of purchase price over the fair value of net assets acquired of approximately $63.8 million is being amortized over a five-year period. As a result of this transaction, True North recorded a $6.1 million gain, net of $4.6 million of deferred income taxes, as a credit to stockholders' equity.

Modem Media concluded that, as of December 31, 2000, the goodwill remaining from the Vivid acquisition, totaling $52.8 million, was fully impaired and could not be recovered from expected future cash flows. As a result, True North recorded its equity share of the charge ($23.2 million) in the fourth quarter of 2000.

At December 31, 2000, True North's carrying value of its investment in Modem Media was $32.8 million and the market value was $36.8 million. Summarized financial information for Modem Media at December 31, 2000, includes current assets of $81.7 million, noncurrent assets of $79.8 million, current liabilities of $50.3 million, noncurrent liabilities of $6.9 million, stockholders' equity of $104.3 million, total revenues of $134.3 million, pre-tax loss of $72.0 million and net loss of $74.2 million.

On November 6, 1998, Publicis S.A. announced its intention to convert True North's 26.5% investment in Publicis Communication to approximately 0.8 million of its publicly traded shares. Despite True North's objections, this transaction was approved by the shareholders of Publicis S.A. and Publicis Communication in special shareholders' meetings held in December 1998 and closed shortly thereafter. As a result, True North owned approximately 8.8% of Publicis S.A., which was recorded as an "available-for-sale security" in marketable securities.

The book value of True North's 26.5% investment in Publicis Communication at the date of conversion was $146.6 million. The fair value of the Publicis S.A. shares (based on a December 14, 1998, closing price of $169.15 per share) was $134.0 million. Accordingly, True North recorded a pre-tax loss of $12.6 million in the fourth quarter of 1998 as a result of the involuntary conversion of its investment in Publicis Communication to shares of Publicis S.A. In addition, True North recorded a deferred tax obligation of approximately $3.2 million upon the exchange. As a result, the after-tax impact of this transaction was a loss of approximately $15.8 million.

On June 14, 1999, True North sold its entire investment in Publicis S.A. for net cash proceeds of $135.3 million and realized a pre-tax gain of $1.3 million ($0.8 million after taxes or $0.02 per share).

8. STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION PLANS

True North has established various stock option plans for directors, officers and other key employees. These plans provide for the issuance of options to purchase common shares at fair market value on the date of grant. Options vest generally over three or five years and expire after ten years. As of December 31, 2000, a total of approximately 2.6 million shares had been reserved for future grants under these plans.

True North accounts for these plans under APB Opinion No. 25, under which no compensation cost has been recognized. Had compensation cost for stock options awarded under these plans been determined consistent with the election under FASB Statement No. 123, True North's net income and earnings per share would have been reduced to the following pro forma amounts (in millions, except per share amounts):

Net income
As reported.....	$61.6	$28.2	$34.3
Pro forma.....	55.0	21.6	29.7
	-----	-----	-----
Basic EPS:
As reported.....	1.24	0.60	0.75
Pro forma.....	1.11	0.46	0.65
	-----	-----	-----
Diluted EPS:
As reported.....	1.21	0.59	0.72

Because the Statement 123 method of accounting has not been applied to options granted prior to January 1, 1995, the resulting pro forma compensation cost may not be representative of that to be expected in future years.

A summary of the status of True North's stock option plans as of December 31, 2000, 1999 and 1998, and changes made during the years then ended is presented in the following table and narrative (shares in thousands):

4.04 years, 454 of these options are exercisable; 1,864.2 options have exercise prices between $20.00 and $24.99, with a weighted average price of $23.16 and a weighted average remaining contract life of 7.42 years, 873 of these options are exercisable; 1,803.8 options have exercise prices between $25.31 and $36.38, with a weighted average price of $27.36 and a weighted average remaining contract life of 7.26 years, 1,299.4 of these options are exercisable; 1,478 options have exercise prices between $37.00 and $42.16, with a weighted average price of $37.12 and a weighted average remaining contract life of 9.00 years, 73.6 of these options are exercisable; the remaining 200.5 options have exercise prices between $42.88 and $46.38, with a weighted average exercise price of $44.46 and a weighted average contract life of 9.18 years, 6.7 of these options are exercisable.

The fair value of each option grant is estimated on the date of the grant using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions used for 2000, 1999, and 1998, respectively: risk-free interest rates of 6.38%, 5.39%, and 5.92%; expected dividend yields of 1.59%, 2.46%, and 2.21%; expected life of 10 years; and expected volatility of 30.8%, 29.7%, and 27.1%.

Effective in 1998, True North initiated a Restricted Stock Program for certain key employees whereby participants of the program can elect or are required to exchange 30% of their executive cash incentive compensation for 115% of such cash compensation payable in restricted stock of True North. One-third of the shares vest upon grant and the remaining shares vest equally over the next two years.

For the year ended December 31, 2000, 0.2 million shares of restricted stock were issued. The shares issued under this plan were recorded at their market value on date of grant with a corresponding charge to stockholder's equity for the unearned portion. The unearned portion is being amortized as compensation expense on a straight-line basis over the vesting period.

9. SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS PLAN

True North adopted a Shareholders' Rights Plan in November 1998 to replace its former plan which expired by its terms. The rights plan, which was amended in 1999, is designed to protect shareholders from unfair or coercive takeover practices. Under this plan, one preferred stock purchase right exists for each outstanding share of common stock. The rights, which expire in November 2008, are exercisable only if a person or group (excluding True North) acquires 15% or more of True North's common stock or announces a tender offer which would result in ownership of 15% or more of True North's common stock. Each right entitles the holder to purchase 1/2000 of a share of Series B Junior Participating Preferred Stock ("preferred stock") of True North at a purchase price of $100.00, subject to adjustment under certain conditions. As of December 31, 2000, 45,000 shares of True North's unissued preferred stock were reserved for issuance upon exercise of these rights.

Subject to certain conditions and limitations, in the event that True North is acquired by a person or group, these rights (which have not otherwise been exercised to acquire True North's preferred stock) entitle the holder to acquire the common stock of the surviving entity at approximately 50% of fair market value. The Shareholders' Rights Plan has been amended so that the execution and delivery of (i) the Agreement and Plan of Merger among The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc., Veritas Acquisition Corp. and True North dated as of March 18, 2001 (Merger Agreement), (ii) the proposed merger and (iii) any other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement will not cause the rights to become exercisable under the plan. In the merger, each right along with the share of common stock with which it is associated will be converted into common stock of The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. and, when so converted, shall no longer be outstanding and shall be automatically cancelled and retired.

The Board of Directors has the flexibility to (i) redeem outstanding rights at a rate of $.01 per right and (ii) adjust the thresholds at which these rights become exercisable. However, True North has agreed not to redeem the rights or amend or grant any waiver or release or approve any transaction under the rights plan, except as otherwise contemplated by the Merger Agreement with respect to the proposed merger.

10. SEGMENT REPORTING

True North's businesses provide advertising and related communications services to clients throughout the world on a collaborative basis. Typically, True North's multiple agency networks service a particular client's needs, and a significant percentage of costs incurred by the agencies are attributable to other business units, particularly media placement. Financial resources are allocated based upon need rather than financial performance of a particular agency brand, and the businesses share similar economic characteristics, clients, services and methods of delivering those services. As a result, True North operates in one business segment. Information about True North's operations in different geographic areas for 2000, 1999 and 1998 is as follows (in millions):

11. RETIREMENT AND OTHER EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

True North and participating U.S. subsidiaries have a 401(k) and profit sharing plan covering certain eligible employees. The plan allows participants to make pre-tax contributions and True North matches up to 4% of the employee's covered compensation, subject to the limits deductible under the Internal Revenue Code. The profit sharing portion of the plan is discretionary and noncontributory. The combined 401(k) and profit sharing plan expenses were $18.9 million in 2000, $15.4 million in 1999, and $15.6 million in 1998.

True North has entered into agreements whereby certain employee directors and other employees are or will be eligible for part-time employment, consulting and/or deferred compensation upon retirement from full-time employment. The provisions for these agreements, which are charged to income over the employment period of these individuals, were $5.9 million in 2000, $13.3 million in 1999, and $12.9 million in 1998.

True North provides limited post-retirement medical and life insurance benefits to employees who retire after age 55 with at least ten years of service. Prior to January 1, 1993, True North accounted for such benefits on the cash basis. In 1993, the company adopted the provisions of SFAS No. 106, "Employers' Accounting for Post-retirement Benefits Other Than Pensions," on a prospective basis. Under this method, True North is amortizing the actuarial present value of the accumulated post-retirement benefit obligation as of January 1, 1993, over a twenty-year period. In addition, True North provides for current-year service costs, interest costs and actuarially determined plan gains and losses.

Discount rates of 7.8%, 6.8%, and 7.3% were used in 2000, 1999 and 1998, respectively. The rates of increase in covered medical benefits used to determine accumulated post-retirement benefits were 7.5% in 2000, 8.0% in 1999, and 8.5% in 1998. This rate is assumed to decrease by 0.5% per annum to 6% in 2003 and remain constant thereafter. The medical benefits cost trend rate assumption does not have a significant effect on the amounts reported. For example, a 1% change in the medical benefits cost trend rate would change the accumulated post-retirement benefit obligation as of December 31, 2000, by $0.1 million and the 2000 cost would change an immaterial amount.

True North has deferred compensation plans which permit certain of its key officers and employees to defer a portion of their salary and incentive compensation and receive corresponding True North matching and discretionary profit sharing contributions. True North has purchased whole life insurance policies on participants' lives to assist in the funding of the deferred compensation liability. As of December 31, 2000, the cash surrender value of these policies was $23.0 million. True North's obligation under the plans, including accumulated interest, was $30.0 million as of December 31, 2000, and is included in Other Noncurrent Liabilities in the Consolidated Balance Sheets.

12. LEASE OBLIGATIONS

True North leases substantially all of its office facilities under operating leases. Net rental expense on these leases was $87.7 million in 2000, $84.3 million in 1999 and $80.0 million in 1998, after deducting sublease income of $20.1 million, $16.3 million, and $19.0 million, respectively.

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

As of December 31, 2000, the future minimum rental obligations for these leases (net of sublease income of approximately $90.4 million) is as follows (in millions):

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2000, True North had $21.0 million of foreign net operating losses, of which $8.1 million expire in varying amounts between 2001 and 2010 and $12.9 million which may be carried forward indefinitely. Valuation allowances of $2.4 million and $1.0 million were established for certain of these foreign net operating losses at December 31, 2000 and 1999, respectively.

16. SUBSEQUENT EVENT

On March 19, 2001, True North and The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. (Interpublic) announced that they had reached a definitive agreement whereby it is contemplated that a subsidiary of Interpublic will merge with and into True North in a pooling of interests transaction that will result in True North becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Interpublic. Under the terms of the agreement, Interpublic will exchange 1.14 shares of its common stock for each outstanding share of True North common stock. The transaction is subject to, among other conditions, the approval of True North shareholders and regulatory approvals in various jurisdictions. True North anticipates the completion of the transaction in the summer of 2001.

REPORT OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

To the Stockholders and Board of Directors of True North Communications Inc.:

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of True North Communications Inc. (a Delaware corporation) and Subsidiaries (the "Company") as of December 31, 2000 and 1999, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity and cash flows for each of three years in the period ended December 31, 2000. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits. We did not audit the financial statements of Publicis Communication for the year ended December 31, 1998. The Company's equity in its net earnings was $3.7 million for the year ended December 31, 1998. The financial statements of Publicis Communication were audited by other auditors whose report has been furnished to us and our opinion, insofar as it relates to the amounts included for Publicis Communication, is based solely upon the report of the other auditors.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audits to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes, examining on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits and the report of other auditors provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, based on our audits and the report of other auditors, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of True North Communications Inc. and Subsidiaries as of December 31, 2000 and 1999, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2000, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

As explained in Note 2 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has given retroactive effect to the change in accounting for amortization of intangible assets.

UNAUDITED NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE THREE MONTHS ENDED MARCH 31, 2001 AND 2000
(Amounts in millions, except per share amounts)

1. Basis of Presentation

The condensed consolidated financial statements included herein have been prepared by True North without audit, and include all adjustments, consisting only of normal recurring accruals, which True North considers necessary for a fair presentation. The condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and notes thereto included in True North's 2000 Annual Report on Form 10-K.

The operating results for the first three months of the year are not necessarily indicative of the results for the year or other interim periods.

2. Acquisitions

In the first three months of 2001, the cost of advertising and communication agencies acquired by True North in transactions accounted for as purchases, as well as earnout payments associated with prior acquisitions, was $21.6 million. The excess of the purchase price over the fair value of net tangible assets acquired was $21.6 million and is being amortized over periods not exceeding 20 years.

3. Restructuring and Other Charges

As a result of the loss of the Chrysler account, True North recorded a $17.5 million pre-tax charge ($10.0 million after-tax or $0.20 per diluted share) in the fourth quarter of 2000. The charge covered primarily severance, lease termination and other exit costs associated with the decision to close the Detroit office. The severance portion of the charge amounted to $5.8 million and reflected the elimination of approximately 250 positions. The charge also included $11.4 million associated primarily with the lease termination of the Detroit office, as well as other exit costs. In addition, an impairment loss of $5.5 million was recorded for intangible assets that are no longer recoverable. Offsetting these charges was a $5.2 million payment from Chrysler to compensate True North for severance and other exit costs. As of March 31, 2001, 176 people had been terminated at a cost of $3.7 million and $2.8 million of lease termination costs and other exit costs had been charged against the liability, of which $1.2 million represented cash payments.

4. Comprehensive Income

True North classifies its comprehensive income, which includes foreign currency translation adjustments and unrealized gains and losses on marketable securities available for sale, as a separate component of stockholders' equity. Total comprehensive income for the three months ended March 31, 2001 and 2000 was as follows:

	Three Months Ended March 31,
	2001	2000
Net income	$ 9.7	$ 7.0
Foreign currency translation	(4.5)	(2.5)
Unrealized gains (losses) on marketable securities, net of deferred income taxes of $0.0 and $(0.2), respectively	--	(0.3)
Total comprehensive income	$ 5.2	$ 4.2

5. Contingencies

True North is a party to several lawsuits incidental to its business. It is not possible at the present time to estimate the ultimate liability, if any, of True North with respect to such litigation; however, management believes that any ultimate liability will not be material in relation to True North's consolidated results of operations or financial position.

6. Merger with Interpublic Group

On March 19, 2001, True North and The Interpublic Group of Companies, Inc. (Interpublic) announced that they had reached a definitive agreement whereby it is contemplated that a subsidiary of Interpublic will merge with and into True North in a pooling of interests transaction that will result in True North becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Interpublic. Under the terms of the agreement, Interpublic will exchange 1.14 shares of its common stock for each outstanding share of True North common stock. The transaction is subject to, among other conditions, the approval of True North shareholders and regulatory approvals in various jurisdictions.

On May 9, 2001, Interpublic filed a Form S-4 registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, True North has scheduled a shareholders' meeting for June 19, 2001 to vote on the proposed merger. True North anticipates the completion of the transaction in the summer of 2001.
