FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Interpublic Announces Completion of Redemption of 6.25% Senior Notes due 2014

New York, NY - May 5, 2014 - Interpublic Group (NYSE: IPG) today announced the completion of the redemption of all $350 million in aggregate principal amount of its 6.25% Senior Notes due 2014. The total cash payment to redeem the 6.25% Notes was $371.2 million, including a make-whole payment and accrued interest. Interpublic first announced the redemption on April 3, 2014.

“This successful completion of our recent financing activities further enhances IPG’s financial flexibility, while also lowering interest expense for the company,” commented Michael I. Roth, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Interpublic. “As we have said before, our capital structure and financial strength have been, and will continue to be, a source of significant value creation.”

Cautionary Statement

This release contains forward-looking statements. Statements in this release that are not historical facts, including statements about management's beliefs and expectations, constitute forward-looking statements. These statements are based on current plans, estimates and projections, and are subject to change based on a number of factors, including those outlined under Item 1A, Risk Factors, in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update publicly any of them in light of new information or future events.

Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties. A number of important factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in any forward-looking statement. Such factors include, but are not limited to, the following:

- potential effects of a challenging economy, for example, on the demand for our advertising and marketing services, on our clients' financial condition, and on our business or financial condition;
- our ability to attract new clients and retain existing clients;
- our ability to retain and attract key employees;
- risks associated with assumptions we make in connection with our critical accounting estimates, including changes in assumptions associated with any effects of a weakened economy;
- potential adverse effects if we are required to recognize impairment charges or other adverse accounting-related developments;
- risks associated with the effects of global, national and regional economic and political conditions, including counterparty risks and fluctuations in economic growth rates, interest rates and currency exchange rates; and
- developments from changes in the regulatory and legal environment for advertising and marketing and communications services companies around the world.

Investors should carefully consider these factors and the additional risk factors outlined in more detail under Item 1A, Risk Factors, in our most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K.
